

All-W 1Pants
MADE TO ORDER
FOR $3.50 CASH.
M. E. FOHS, The Tailor.

VOLUME 16.

WOMEN "SHINERS,"
Before the Federal Court at LOUisville for Selling Liquor
Without Authority.

Typical Mountain Characters.

About once year a score or two of people are brought to Louisville from the mountain counties to answer in the Federal court charges of violating Uncle Sam's liquor laws. Some are there for illicit selling, and some for operating "moonshines" distilleries. A great many are easily convicted, as the deputy marshals, who devote their time looking after matters of this kind, have the witnesses on hand, and the trials are short affairs when compared to some of our trials for even misdemeanors in the State courts.

By no means, are the violators of the law all of the sterner sex, but women are not uncommon in the persons of these affairs, some of which are humorous, some comic and others dramatic and touching. The following from the Courier Journal gives some insight to the business.

The mountain women were in the Federal Court yesterday. They were there with babies and without babies, and those who did not have them told of little ones in their mountain homes.

Martha Tackett was tried for retailing liquor without a license. Her appearance was little indication of her age. She was low and bent until her head sat low between her shoulders. Her figure was small and clothed in a black calico dress. A little bonnet, with a long peak, sat just back of her forehead. As she took the prisoners' chair she gathered a thin black shawl close about her shoulders.

Hail a dozen witnesses testified that they had bought small amounts of whiskey from her at different times in Pike county.

District Attorney Smith asked the woman if she wanted to ask the witnesses any questions, and she said no in each instance. She had no attorney.

When the prosecution had finished, Martha Tackett was asked if she wanted to testify. She said "yes," reluctantly.

"Did you sell any whisky?" asked Judge Barr.

"Yes."

"What did you do it for?"

"I sold it for my man's sake. She was sick, and I was not able to work."

"How long did you sell?"

"About three weeks."

"You were not able to work?"

"No, sir. If I hadn't been 'blighted' to sell it I would 'a sold it,' and her eyes searched the floor basfully."

"That is all," said Judge Barr, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

When it came time for her to be sentenced Judge Barr asked her if she had anything to say. She said no, though she evidently did not understand what the Judge meant. By much questioning Judge Barr brought out the fact that she had two little children, and that her husband had died about four years ago. She had been in jail since June 22 and had not seen her children in that time.

"Judge I won't sell any more if you let me go this time. If you send me to jail I will never get to see my children. When I would get out I would not have any money to go home on and I would know how to get there if I did. The witnesses who are from up my way are goin' home now, an' they will take me back home if you'll let me go."

"I believe I'll let you go," said Judge Barr. "Don't sell any more whisky."

She cried more at this and said she would never sell whisky again. She left the stand thanking him and looking about her in a dazed sort of way for the witness she expected to take her back to her babies.

Sally Scott is a thin, little woman who had been indicted for retailing liquor without a license. Her face was rather pretty and she seemed to possess more than the intelligence of the average woman of her class. Her home is in Larne county. She pleaded guilty to the charge, saying she wanted no trial, as she had no money to employ an attorney.

Judge Barr asked her if she had anything to say before sentence was passed on her.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Not Here

The Crittenden Press.

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, OCTOBER 17, 1895.

NUMBER 19

229

M. E. FOHS,
Merchant Tailor
MARION, KY.
Receives new goods every day. Suits made to order $15.00 and upwards.
All-wool pants made to order $3.50.

NOTICE.

We have this day, by mutual consent, dissolved our co-partnership to the practice of law, and desire all who are indebted to us to call and settle.
A. C. Moore,
Jno. A. Moore.
This Sept. 21, 1895.

Wheat Drills!

BY THE PEOPLES MAN.

Almost at

your own Price,

And guaranteed. $140.00 on 12 months time and less for cash. I have on hand Superior and Gund-lach Drills.

JOSEPH MASON,

Cave-in-Rock, Ills.

"I make an honest livin'. I have 'leven children and one of them's this 'ere baby," and she held a six-weeks-old child toward the court. Then she broke down and cried.

"A fine of $100 and thirty days' imprisonment," said Judge Barr.

She seemed perfectly satisfied with this sentence. She told Martha Tackett goodbye as she was led away by a Deputy United States Marshal.

Figures That Give Some Ideas of China's Vastness.
(Philadelphia Record.)

The following table is given by the American Legation in Peking as approximately accurate, and is valuable, because it notes the population of each province, some of which, it will be seen, contain more people than the United States:

Province.	Population.
Chihli	6,000,000
Shantung	18,000,000
Shensi	36,000,000
Shensi	12,000,000
Sechuan	22,000,000
Yunnan	68,000,000
Hupeh	11,000,000
Kiangsu	33,000,000
Kwohow	21,000,000
Anhwei	8,000,000
Chekiang	12,000,000
Shensi	52,000,000
Fukien	30,000,000
Hunan	21,000,000
Kingsi	24,000,000
Kwangsi	5,000,000
Kauas	5,000,000
Total	413,000,000

The longest straight line that can be drawn in Chinese territory would be 3,350 miles, from northeast to southwest. The greatest breadth of the Empire is 2,100 miles. The circuit of the whole is about 14,000 miles, or considerably over one-half of the circumference of the globe. The Russian boundary is 5,300 miles. The coast line is 4,400 miles.

Hicks' Great Works.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks, the celebrated storm prophet, of St. Louis, is now a household name in nearly every home in America. His wonderful Almanac predicts the weather for a year ahead more correctly and accurately than any other publication or any other system. The testimony of a large number of careful observers is that 99 per cent of Hicks' predictions are fulfilled to the letter. His series of annual Almanacs are now well and favorably known in all parts of this country and in foreign lands. The new Almanac for 1896 is the most practical and instructive as well as the prettiest of this splendid series. It contains 100 pages, printed on fine book paper, with covers elegantly printed in colors. The matter, although scientific, is written in popular style, there being nothing difficult to understand about it. It is also finely illustrated. Don't confound this with some patent medicine pamphlet. It is nothing of the kind, but is a fine book, which sells at all news stands for 25c.

This Almanac is given as a premium to every year's subscriber to the Rev. Irl R. Hicks' well-known and deservedly popular paper, WORD AND WORKS. This unique journal is a real education of the masses, and is fast becoming a household guardian and necessity in the homes of America. Those who want to keep up with the advanced thought of the age in science, religion and all social, commercial, intellectual and domestic subjects, should subscribe for WORD AND WORKS. Subscription only $1.00 a year. You can send for both direct to WORD AND WORKS PUBLISHING CO., St. Louis, Mo. Single copies of WORD AND WORKS, 10 cents.

If Troubled With Rheumatism Read This.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Apr. 16, 1894.—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains on the market and cheerfully recommend it to the public. Jno. G. Brooks, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 18 Main St.

ALSO READ THIS.

MECHANICVILLE, St. Mary county, Md.—I sold a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm to a man who had been suffering with rheumatism for several years. It made him a well man. A. J. McGill. For sale at 50 cent per bottle by J. H. Orme & Bro. Druggists.

A FRIEND.

Goods are sometimes "evils," as Franklin wisely observed. A liver pill is good for extreme cases of biliousness, but a milder and equally effectual remedy in all cases of biliousness are Ramon's Toxic Liver Pills and Pellets. Your druggist always carries them in stock, and they cost but 25 cents. This remedy cures completely, but without the severity of the average liver pill. Sample free.

Some Questions.

A. B. Brown, an attorney of Cincinnati, has propounded the following questions to Roswell G. Horr, who had the famous debate with W. H. Harvey, the author of "Cain's Financial School," at Chicago:

1. Who asked for the Demonetization of silver in 1873? What political party asked for the destruction of silver as redemption money?

2. If the measure was honest legislation, why was its purpose surreptitiously concealed beneath a misleading title?

3. Why was the word "silver" entirely eliminated from the title of the Bill?

4. What was the great emergency that demanded the demonetization of the most valuable of the two money metals in 1873?

5. If 412 1/2 grains of standard silver was worth $1.02 before demonetization and would pay $1.02 to the credit of our government then held by European and English speculators, what was it if it was not the act of demonetization itself that reduced its debt-paying power?

6. What was it that prompted Senator Sherman to such unseemly haste in pushing the bill before the Senate on January 11, 1873 declaring: "It is a matter of vital interest to the government, and I am informed by the government officers that it is important it should be passed promptly," to say when urging the immediate passage of this bill that it would directly strike down every silver dollar that had been coined by this government and then in circulation, at the money value of $1.02 for each $1. "I do not think it will take more than the time consumed in the reading of it."

7. Who were the government officers who were declaring "it is important that it should pass promptly," and what interest had they greater than the people to urge special legislation?

8. If a "gold standard" is essential to foreign commerce, why was it that, after suspending specie payments in 1879, during which year we were presumed not to possess a single gold or silver dollar for debt paying purposes, our imports of merchandise from foreign countries into the United States in excess of exports from the United States was $442,663,625?

9. What interest has the bond speculator in the continuance of the single gold standard?

10. Who was the author of the "mint bill?"

11. Why was it the press of the country kept in dense ignorance of the purport of this measure that was "so important it should pass promptly?"

12. Why did General Grant declare at the close of his eventful life, when discussing the bill, "I never suspected that bill affected the value of silver metal for money;" and why was he hoodwinked?

OBITUARY.

Died at the residence of his father, Aug. 18, 1895, George I. Paris, in his 28th year. He professed faith in Christ in a meeting conducted by the writer in the fall of 1882, and united with the Dunn Springs church since which he led an exemplary Christian life. How inscrutable are the ways of an all wise Providence always taking those whom we can least afford to give up, those whose Christian lives seem to be most useful. How sad the thought when we remember that George is dead. No more will we hear him as he meets his friends and loved ones, extend to them his old familiar friendly greeting, no more will his life be a standing reproach to his associates in the community of their wrong doing.

But he is gone, and we, his friends in humble submission to him "who doeth all things well."

We would say not as those who have no hope, you will meet the loved one again, on the shining banks of eternal deliverance, where you will reunite never more to part.

Funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. S. Henry at his father's residence from John 13:7, where had gathered a large crowd of friends and relatives, after which his remains were borne to Dunn Springs cemetery, there laid to rest to await the resurrection morn.

A Good Story.

Two brothers kept a saloon in a Missouri town. One of them went to Chicago to lay in a stock of liquor. When he left home a revival was in progress in town and he had hardly reached the end of his journey when he received the following telegram: "Bill—Buy no liquor. Business is taking us to hell—Jim." That night Bill went to hear Col. R. G. Ingolds lecture. As soon as he got to his hotel he sent off a message as follows: "Jim—Bill—tell till I come. Have it from a prominent citizen of Illinois that hell is closed up.—Bill."

Livingston County News.
(From Smithfield Banner.)

Last week while Walter Pierces who lives near Salem was in his barn holding tobacco a tier pole fell from the top of the barn and entirely crushed one of his legs. Pieces of bone were taken from the wound, and it is thought that amputation may be resort to, at least it is thought he always will be a cripple. The accident is to be regretted, as Mr. Pierces is of our best and most enterprising farmers.

To Fight at Hot Springs.
It is now announced that the prize fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons will take place at Hot Springs, on the time agreed upon Oct. 31. Mr. Clark will not tell what he will do when he will take such steps.

ARE YOU BANKRUPT? in health, constitution undermined by extravagance in eating, by disregarding the laws of nature, or physical capital all gone, if so,

In a recent letter to the manufacturer Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y. says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own State, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years ago, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of coughs and colds, Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame joints, sprains, &c., and Chamberlain's Liver Pills for liver complaints.

NEVER DESPAIR
Tutt's Liver Pills will cure you. For sick headache, dyspepsia, sour stomach, malaria, torpid liver, constipation, biliousness and all kindred diseases.

Tutt's Liver Pill
absolute cure.

FOR FREE COINAGE.

Declaration of the Farmers' National Congress.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—The farmers' national congress devoted much of its time to-day to monetary questions and declared for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. The committee on resolutions had a dozen propositions, differing very little except in their wording and there was a long debate, but without leadership on either side.

A Negro Convention.
A call has been issued by a committee of prominent negroes from many States in the Union for a national conference of colored men to meet at Detroit, Mich., Dec. 12, 1895. The principal subjects to be considered are lynching and alleged disfranchisement of many negroes in Southern States.

The old Liberty Bell.

The old Liberty Bell has been taken from its house in Philadelphia to the Atlanta Exposition. It arrived at Atlanta on the 9th, it was a red-letter day at the latter place. The old bell met with a hearty greeting all along the road, and at its destination it was received with imposing ceremonies. From the depot to the fair grounds it was drawn by six handsome gray horses, and followed by the Governor, the Mayor and several companies of soldiers, when it reached its place in the exposition. The band gave "Dixie" and the Atlanta Artillery band played "Three Gun." The school children were then permitted to come by the bell, and touch it with their hands.

An Englishman's Retaliation.

Lord Sackville, who was England's minister to this country in 1888, and who was, just previous to the presidential election of that year, given his passport by President Cleveland, has

All-W 1Pants
MADE TO ORDER
FOR $3.50 CASH.
M. E. FOHS, The Tailor.

VOLUME 16.

The Crittenden Press.

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, OCTOBER 17, 1895.

NUMBER 1

NOTICE.

We have this day, in our agent, dissolved our co., inc., the practice of law, and desire all to be held to us to call and settle.
A. C. Moore,
A. C. Moore.

This Sept. 21, 1895.

Wheat Drills!

BY THE PEOPLES MAN.

Almost at
Your Own Price.

And guaranteed. $40.00
mouths time and less for cash.
have on hands Superior and Gun
lach Drills.

JOSEPH MASON,
Cave-in-Rock, Ills.

WOMEN "SHINERS."
Before the Federal Court at Louisville for Selling Liquor
Without Authority.

Typical Mountain Characters.

About once a year a score or two of people are brought to Louisville from the mountain counties to answer in the Federal court charges of violating Uncle Sam's liquor laws. Some are there for illicit selling, and some for operating "moonshine" distilleries. A great many are easily convicted, as the deputy marshals, who devote their time looking after matters of this kind, have the witnesses on hand, and the trials are short affairs when compared to some of our trials for even misdemeanors in the State courts.

By no means, are the violators of the law all of the sterner sex, but women are not uncommon in the persons of these affairs, some of which are humorous, some comic and others dramatic and touching. The following from the Courier Journal gives some insight to the business.

The moonshiners women were in the Federal Court yesterday. They were there with babies and without babies, and those who did not have them told of little ones in their mountain homes.

Martha Tackett was tried for retailing liquor without a license. Her appearance was little indication of her age. She was low and bent until her head was low between her shoulders. Her figure was small and clothed in a black calico dress. A little bonnet, with a long peak, sat just back of her forehead. As she took the prisoners' chair she gathered a thin black shawl close about her shoulders.

Hall a dozen witnesses testified that they had bought small amounts of whiskey from her at different times in Pike county.

District Attorney Smith asked the woman if she wanted to ask the witnesses any questions, and she said no in each instance. She had no attorney.

When the prosecution had finished, Martha Tackett was asked if she wanted to testify. She said "yes," reluctantly.

"Did you sell any whisky?" asked Judge Harr.

"Yes."

"What did you do it for?"

"I sold it for my mommy's sake. She was sick, and I was not able to work."

"How long did you sell?"

"About three weeks."

"You were not able to work?"

"No, sir. If I had been obliged to sell it I would have sold it, and her eyes searched the floor hopefully.

"That is all," said Judge Harr, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

When it came time for her to be sentenced Judge Harr asked her if she had anything to say. She said no, though she evidently did not understand what the Judge meant. By much questioning Judge Barr brought out the fact that she had two little children, and that her husband had died about four years ago. She had been in jail since June 22 and had not seen her children in that time.

"Judge I won't sell any more if you let me go this time. If you send me to jail I will never get to see my children. When I would get out I would not have any money to go home on and I would know how to get there if I did. The witnesses who are from up my way are goin' home now, an they will take me back home of you'll let me go."

"I believe I'll let you go," said Judge Harr. "Don't sell any more whisky."

She cried more at this and said she would never sell whisky again. She left the stand thanking him and looking about her in a dazed sort of way for the witnesses she expected to take her back to her babies.

Sally Scott is a thin, little woman who had been indicted for retailing liquor without a license. Her face was rather pretty and she seemed to possess more than the intelligence of the average woman of her class. Her home is in Larue county. She pleaded guilty to the charge, saying she wanted no trial, as she had no money to employ an attorney.

Judge Barr asked her if she had anything to say before sentence was passed on her.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

"I make an honest living. I have seven children and one of them's this 'ere baby," and she held a six-week-old child toward the court. Then she broke down and cried.

"A fine of $100 and thirty days' imprisonment," said Judge Barr.

She seemed perfectly satisfied with this sentence. She told Martha Tackett goodbye as she was led away by a Deputy United States Marshal.

Figures That Give Some Idea of China's vastness.

(Philadelphia Record.)

The following table is given by the American Legation in Peking as approximately accurate, and is valuable, because it notes the population of each province, some of which, it will be seen, contain more people than the United States:

Province.	Population.
Manchuria	6,000,000
Chihli	18,000,000
Shantung	36,000,000
Shansi	12,000,000
Hunan	22,000,000
Szechuan	18,000,000
Yunnan	11,000,000
Hupei	33,000,000
Kiangsu	21,000,000
Kiangchow	8,000,000
Anhwei	21,000,000
Chekiang	12,000,000
Shensi	8,000,000
Fukien	52,000,000
Kwangtung	30,000,000
Hunan	21,000,000
Kiangsi	24,000,000
Kwangtung	5,000,000
Kansu	5,000,000
Total	413,000,000

The longest straight line that can be drawn in Chinese territory would be 3,150 miles, from northeast to southwest. The greatest breadth of the Empire is 2,100 miles. The circuit of the whole is about 14,000 miles, or considerably over one-half of the circumference of the globe. The Russian boundary is 5,300 miles. The coast line is 4,400 miles.

Hicks' Great Works.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks, the celebrated storm prophet, of St. Louis, is now a household name in nearly every home in America. His wonderful Almanac predicts the weather for a year ahead more correctly and accurately than any other publication or any other system. The testimony of a large number of careful observers is that 99 per cent of Hicks' predictions are fulfilled to the letter. His series of annual Almanacs are now well and favorably known in all parts of this country and in foreign lands. The new Almanac for 1896 is the most practical and instructive as well as the prettiest of this splendid series. It contains 100 pages printed on fine book paper, with covers elegantly printed in colors. The matter, although scientific, is written in popular style, there being nothing difficult to understand about it. It is also finely illustrated. Don't confound this with some patent medicine pamphlet. It is nothing of the kind, but is a fine book, which sells at news stands for 25¢. This fine Almanac is given as a premium to every yearly subscriber to the Rev. Irl R. Hicks' well-known and deservedly popular paper, Woman and Works. This unique journal is a peerless educator of the masses, and is fast becoming a household guardian and necessity in the homes of America. Those who want to keep up with the advanced thought of the age in science, religion and all social, commercial, intellectual and domestic subjects, should subscribe for Woman and Works. Subscription only $1.00 a year. You can send for both direct to Woman and Works Publishing Co., St. Louis, Mo. Single copies 10 cents.

If Troubled With Rheumatism Read This.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Apr. 16, 1894.—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pain on the market and cheerfully recommend it to the public. Jno. G. Brooks, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 18 Main St.

ALSO READ THIS.

MECHANICSVILLE, St. Mary county, Md.—I sold a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm to a man who had been suffering with rheumatism for several years. It made him a well man. A. J. McGill. For sale at 50 cent per bottle by J. H. Orme & Bro. Druggists.

Some Questions.

A. A. Brown, an attorney of Cincinnati, has propounded the following question to Roswell G. Horr, who had the famous debate with W. H. Harvey, the author of "Coi's Financial School," at Chicago:

1. Who asked for the Demonetization of silver in 1873? What political party asked for the destruction of silver as redemption money?

2. If the measure was honest legislation, why was its purpose surreptitiously concealed beneath a misleading title?

3. Why was the word "silver" entirely eliminated from the title of the bill?

4. What was the great emergency that demanded the demonetization of the most valuable of the two money metals in 1873?

5. If 412 1/2 grains of standard silver was worth $1.02 before demonetization and would pay $1.02 to the credit of our government then held by European and English speculators, what was it if it was not the act of demonetization itself that reduced its debt-paying power?

6. What was it that prompted Senator Sherman to such unseemly haste in pushing the bill before the Senate on January 11, 1873 declaring: "It is a matter of vital interest to the government, and I am informed by the government officers that it is important it should be passed promptly," to say when urging the immediate passage of this bill that it would directly strike down every silver dollar that had been coined by this government and then in circulation, at the money value of $1.02 for each $1. "I do not think it will take more than the time consumed in the reading of it."

7. Who were the government officers who were declaring "it is important it should pass promptly," and what interest had they greater than the people to urge special legislation?

8. If a "gold standard" is essential to foreign commerce, why was it, after suspending specie payments in 1879, during which year we were permitted not to possess a single gold or silver dollar for debt paying purposes, our imports of merchandise from foreign countries into the United States in excess of exports from the United States was $442,663,825?

9. What interest has the bond speculator in the continuance of the single gold standard?

10. Who was the author of the "mint bill?"

11. Why was it the press of the country was kept in dense ignorance of the purport of this measure that was "so important" it should pass promptly?

12. Why did General Grant declare at the close of his bill, "I never suspected that bill affected the value of silver metal for money," and why was he hoodwinked?

OBITUARY.

Died at the residence of his father, Aug. 18, 1895, George I. Paris, in his 28th year. He professed faith in Christ in a meeting conducted by the writer in the fall of 1882, and united with the Dunn Springs church since which he led an exemplary Christian life. How inserutable are the ways of an all wise Providence always taking those whom we can least afford to give up, those whose Christian lives seem to be most useful. How sad it thought when we remember that George is dead. No more will we hear him as he meets his friends and loved ones, extend to them his old familiar friendly greeting; no more will his associates be a standing reproach to his family in the community of their wrong doing.

He is gone, and we, his friends, in humble submission to Him "who doeth all things well."

We would say then to the bereaved you weep not as those who have no hope, you will meet the loved one again, on the shining banks of eternal deliverance, where you will reunite never more to part.

Orator Franks has had the misfortune to meet James a time or two before, and he didn't want to get mixed up with the buzz-word of "Whitney's" eloquence. The advantage of the affair was altogether with the Democrats.

A FRIEND.

Goods are sometimes "ovis," as Franklin wisely observed. A liver pill is good for extreme cases of biliousness, but a milder and equally effectual remedy in all cases of biliousness are Ramon's Tonic Liver Pills and Pellets. Your druggist always carries them in stock, and they cost but 25 cents. This remedy cures completely, but without the severity of the average liver pill. It is closed up.—Bill.

Livingston County News.

(From Smithland Banner.)

Last week while Walter Pierce who lives near Salem was in his barn holding tobacco a tier pole fell from the top of the barn and entirely crushed one of his legs. Pieces of bone were taken from the wound, and it is thought that amputation may be resorted to, at least it is thought he will always be a cripple. The accident is to be regretted, as Mr. Pierce is one of our best and most enterprising farmers.

Last Saturday morning while jailer, W. H. Taylor, went into the jail to feed the prisoners, and sent John Bennett, col., who is working out a $100 fine, to pump some water. Bennett walked away and has not been found since as yet. It is thought that he went towards Princeton and several are on the lookout for him. The jailer has offered a reward of $25 for his apprehension.

The Smithland people are greatly pleased over the improvements being made in the channel and harbor at the mouth of Cumberland. Capt. Cheatham deserves a great deal of praise for the earnest manner in which he has labored to remove all obstruction to navigation to the town. All this season the boats have come by and landed in safety, and with these improvements we feel assured that we will have a sure navigation the year round.

Mr. Geo. Jolly who has been in bad health since last spring is very low with typhoid fever and as the last report the Dr. had him removed from his home to his father in laws, but it was of no avail and his death is expected at any time, his wife also is very sick with fever and is unable to be with him.

The old Liberty Bell.

The old Liberty Bell has been taken from its home in Philadelphia to the Atlanta Exposition. It arrived at Atlanta on the 9th, it was a red-letter day at the latter place. The old bell met with a hearty greeting all along the road, and at its destination it was received with imposing ceremonies.

From the depot to the fair grounds it was drawn by six handsome gray horses, and followed by the Governor, the Mayor and several companies of soldiers, when it reached its place in the exposition. The band gave "Dixie" and the Atlanta Artillery fired a salute of thirteen guns. The school children were then permitted to come by the bell, and touch it with their hands.

An Englishman's Retaliation.

Lord Sackville, who was England's ambassador to this country in 1888, and who was, just previous to the presidential election of that year, given his pass-port by President Cleveland, has printed a pamphlet giving his version of the affair that led up to the notification that he was no longer acceptable to this country. He wrote a letter which was at the time known as the "Murchison letter," and which created considerable excitement as it was published just on the eve of the election, advising the fictitious "Murchison" in California, how the administration stood on the English-Irish question. This letter caused his dismissal. Now he undertakes to explain matters by charging that the men connected with the administration treated him as they did in order to entitle the Irish vote in this country. He intimates that the same spirit pervaded the Arthur administration, and American Statesmen are wire pullers ready to grind any grit that would be valuable to them in swaying the voters. His book has created considerable comment, and its publication is considered a threat to our present minister to England-Bayard.

About January 1, I expect to change my business, unless some unforeseen events occur, and you had better have purchase, I am compelled to have at least two more cars. Bring in your samples and get price.

A White Wing.

The white Republicans of Louisiana are taking steps to form the white wing of the party into a separate political organization. They propose to cut entirely loose from the colored voters.

To Fight at Hot Springs.

It is now announced that the fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons will take place at Hot Springs, Ark., at the time agreed upon Oct. 31. Gov. Clark will not tell what he will do other than he will take such steps as he deems necessary.

Tutt's Liver Pills.

an absolute cure.

ARE YOU BANKRUPT in health, constitution undermined by extravagance in eating, by disregarding the laws of nature, or physical capital all gone, if so, NEVER DESPAIR

Tutt's Liver Pills will cure you.

For sick headache, dyspepsia, sour stomach, malaria, torpid liver, constipation, biliousness and all kindred diseases.

Tutt's Liver Pills

an absolute cure.

FOR FREE COINAGE.

Bed Blankets and Comforts Cheaper than Ever!

AGAIN WE COME TO THE FRONT!

WITH WHAT EVERYONE WOULD SAY

The Best Selected, Lowest Price, Stock of Goods Ever Seen in our County.

WE ARE SHOWING
A GREAT LINE OF

Wool Dress Goods, Gingham, Satins, Crepons,
Gingham, and Everything in the Dry Goods and Notion Line.

Remember
We Handle

No Shoddy
Boots or Shoes.

BUY YOUR GOODS
FROM

We have the Newest and Cheapest Line of

Ladies Capes
and Cloaks

EVER SEEN.

Men and Boys This cold weather will make you shed your linen and put on some good winter clothes. Get you a suit of clothes and Overcoat at less price than you ever heard of before.

Sec Our Goods, Get Our Prices. Make Money by Saving it.

It is about time for all to lay aside their slippers and summer shoes, and when you look out for you own interest by buying at the old low prices—from the best stock of Boots and Shoes in the Country.

PIERCE-YANDELL-GUGENHEIM CO.

INCORPORATED.

The Press.

ISSUED WEEKLY.

R. C. WALKER, Publisher.

ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR

The Courier-Journal is still pouring salt into the Democratic wounds.

As the election draws near and nearer, the Louisville Post gets madder and madder.

Professions of faith are all right in their place, and their place is at the beginning of a row of good works.

Gov. Clark, of Arkansas, is disposed to rise to the occasion and kick the prize-fighters out of his state.

The usual genial, stirring Watterson editorials of the Courier-Journal are given way to the lamentations of a Jeremiah, and the railings of a Pope.

Peace has her victories no less renowned than war, and the victory over the untried men are beginning to win over bad roads is one of the foremost's products.

Let us sincerely hope that the white copper has capped the cli max and will forever and a day cease to handicap the peace and good fellow feelings of the country.

Messrs. Crisp, Vest and Wanamaker have all recently returned from Europe, and each brings word that there is no hope of the powers of the old world leading any friendly encouragement to an international monetary conference, looking to the re-establishment of silver.

The proverb about the leopard not changing its spots does not always hold good. The present generation can very well remember when the Courier Journal, in discussing financial affairs, said:

"The facts demonstrate in a crystal light that the single gold standard is universal instrument of civilization."

Now that paper can not find a suitable epithet in the English language to apply to those who believed then and still believe the doctrine in its taught, and its title editor now calls the economists "jabberwocks."

The old leopard said:

"We are nothing in challenging any monometallic to deny that depression was and is the direct, legitimate result of monometallicism." The Mass. legislator who "fathered" John Sherman, himself admits it.

The new leopard now calls those who claim and now accept its statement the true, "fanatics," "demagogues," "utopists" and "fools."

The old leopard said:

"There is not to-day in all the world a writer on the side of the single gold standard who would hazard his reputation as an honest man by asserting that the universal price contracting of this era is not the work of the gold standard." The admittance there is no man exactly this, the gold standard is a universal and all powerful instrument for the enslavement of production to capital."

The new leopard growls with the ferocity of the hungriest beast in the forest, when his old food is now thrown into his new cage.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him, and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is logical, clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes, he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause.

Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Cheap Rate to Atlanta

For those who would like to visit the great Atlanta Cotton States and International Exposition, Lookout Mountain battlefield and the South, an opportunity will be afforded on Monday Oct. 28th, when an excursion will leave Princeton, conducted by Mr. Edgar W. Whittemore, who has had considerable experience in such matters, and has always brought his parties through safely and pleasantly. $22.00 pays every cent of necessary expense, including a side trip on Lookout Mountain and four days admission to the Exposition. Those who prefer can simply by a round trip railroad fare, which from Princeton, is $11.00.

Those who may desire more details, can obtain them by writing to Mr. Whittemore at Grand Rivers. It is a splendid opportunity to visit the South at a light expense.

NEW SALEM.

Everybody is enjoying the very agreeable change in the weather.

Some of us would like to see a good ratio, so as to enable our farmers to sell their full crop of wheat. There is not more than 20 per cent of a crop at this date.

The sickness seems to be on the stand still at present, the following families needed the services of a doctor last week. Rob. Threlkeld, Geo. C. Tyler, Wm. Montgomery, Bill Tyler, Ti Ha McWhiter and Tom Harpey.

Mrs. Dora Threlkeld who has been confined to her bed for the last three weeks, we are glad to learn is improving.

The C. P. Presbytery passed off pleasantly at New Salem. There was some excellent preaching during the session.

The frost came like a thief in the night to many a farmer that had a tobacco crop and about 25 per cent of the 1885, crops were ruined.

Geo. C. Kirk has bought a part of the James Shavers, farm and will still stay in old Crittenden.

Our school will begin again the 14th after a dismising for two weeks on account of so much sickness.

Protracted meeting began at Union church Saturday, before the second Sunday.

MOUNDS.

On last Wednesday Oct. 7, all hearts of the village were made to glow with the thoughts of a matrimonial affair, so many friends and relations gathered at the residence of the bride's father Mr. J. H. Robinson to witness the happy union, and at the appointed time when all was ready, Miss Etta Wofford and Mr. Bill Due, walked out on the floor followed by the bridal couple, after short ceremony by Rev. J. J. Franks they were made in bonds of love. Many congratulations were extended and all seemed happy. Bird Barger is the son of John Barger, and is liked by all who know him. Miss Lucy is the daughter of Harlow Robinson, and is one of many friends and associates.

Ed Moore is able to be up again after several weeks illness.

Al and Joe Dean have built a large tobacco barn and have it full of the weed.

John Barger has been sick for some time but is convalescent.

Henry Bell stops the people when they pass his house and with a smile of unexpressable joy, points to the home and says "it's a boy."

Our farmers are putting in a large crop of wheat.

Mrs. Ida Swaney is on the sick list.

Prof. Moore of Forest Grove school had a spelling Friday night, it was well attended, Miss Sallie Crider of Dean's school, lent a helping hand.

Mr. Newell passed through our neighborhood Sunday.

Mrs. Al Witherspoon of Marion, has been visiting Wm. Terry's family this week.

It is a mystery to Harlow Robinson as to what became of the "shoe," he says something must be done.

Markham Terry of Sheridan is a frequent visitor to our neighborhood.

Palmer.

ANNORA.

C. L. Ballard on the sick list.

J. T. Nelson went to Marion Monday.

W. E. Ackridge, of Kelsey, was in these parts Tuesday.

It is a girl at Wash Moore's.

Mrs. W. C. Glenn, of Fredonia, was visiting friends here last week.

Rev. Moore began a protracted meeting at this place last Sunday.

Mrs. McNeely, of Piney, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Bibb, this week.

Miss Emma and Lucy Burget, of Marion, are visiting here and attending the meeting this week.

Uncle Wash Deboe lost a barn of tobacco by fire last week.

Mrs. Mary Hughes and Miss Alice Green, of Fredonia, were visiting in these parts last Wednesday.

Geo. C. Kirk has bought a part of the James Shavers, farm and will

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Vandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minner and Alie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Will Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Salem.

Mr. T. J. Nickell the nominee for Representative, passed through Salem Saturday, after a trip of several days in both counties and reported good prospects for a Democrat victory in November. He says he found the people ready to stand by the entire ticket and let by gones be by-gones.

Mr. Nickell is truly a "diamond in the rough" and will guard well any trust reposed in him.

On Thursday morning at 10 o'clock after intense suffering, Euwice, the bright and loving little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Haydon breathed her last;—again—

Al and Joe Dean have built a large tobacco barn and have it full of the weed.

John Barger has been sick for some time but is convalescent.

Henry Bell stops the people when they pass his house and with a smile of unexpressable joy, points to the home and says "it's a boy."

Our farmers are putting in a large crop of wheat.

Mrs. Ida Swaney is on the sick list.

Prof. Moore of Forest Grove school had a spelling Friday night, it was well attended, Miss Sallie Crider of Dean's school, lent a helping hand.

Mr. Newell passed through our neighborhood Sunday.

Mrs. Al Witherspoon of Marion, has been visiting Wm. Terry's family this week.

It is a mystery to Harlow Robinson as to what became of the "shoe," he says something must be done.

Markham Terry of Sheridan is a frequent visitor to our neighborhood.

Palmer.

ANNORA.

C. L. Ballard on the sick list.

J. T. Nelson went to Marion Monday.

W. E. Ackridge, of Kelsey, was in these parts Tuesday.

It is a girl at Wash Moore's.

Mrs. W. C. Glenn, of Fredonia, was visiting friends here last week.

Rev. Moore began a protracted meeting at this place last Sunday.

Mrs. McNeely, of Piney, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Bibb, this week.

Miss Emma and Lucy Burget, of Marion, are visiting here and attending the meeting this week.

Uncle Wash Deboe lost a barn of tobacco by fire last week.

Mrs. Mary Hughes and Miss Alice Green, of Fredonia, were visiting in these parts last Wednesday.

Geo. C. Kirk has bought a part of the James Shavers, farm and will call on S. R. Cassidy.

You will find the best line of shoes at Cassidy's. If you need a suit of clothes, overcoat or anything in the clothing line, you can save money by calling on S. R. Cassidy.

My stock is full and complete in every way, and bought at lowest prices. My expenses are lighter than those of any other merchant, and people who trade with me get the benefit of it.

S. R. Cassidy.

I should like to have a few copies of the Press of July 25th, 1895.

W. C. Gleon.

Stock water is getting scarce in some neighborhoods.

Mesdames Mollie Wilson, Mary Alice and George Wyatt were in Princeton shopping last week.

Bugg & Loyd have the newest and best selected stock of goods in town. They handle only the best of every thing in their line, and sell it at the lowest prices for the cash. Save money by purchasing dress goods, shoes, pants, trimmings, etc. of them. And if you want good bread, buy your flour of them to make it, they have the best.

S. R. Cassidy.

The very best home made sorghum, at 15cts

Eastern meat at $1.2 cents per pound,

Refined Eastern Lard at 81-2 cents per lb.

21 lbs granulated sugar for $1.00

22 lbs C sugar for $1.00

4 1-2 lbs coffee for $1.00

Water Bucket 10 cts

Soda 7 pounds for 25 cts

Celebrated "Own Brand" baking powder, as good as the Royal, 25cts a pound.

Good broom 10 cents.

4 piece glass set 25 cents.

Glassware and Queensware of every description must go regardless of price as we are closing this stock out.

Everybody indebted to the firms of Jacobs & Deboe, B. A. Jacobs and Paris & Jacobs, are requested to call at once and settle with B. A. Jacobs, Frederia, Ky. This Oct. 14, 1895. Remember! debts are dangerous, so don't put it off.

Mrs. Anna Matt and — Walker left for Texas Monday morning.

Miss Walker has been visiting her sister, Ed Wyatt for several months.

Men's strictly all wool suits in blue-black and gray, only $5.00.

Sam Howerton.

A man's cassimere overcoat, can't fade it, only $2.75.

Sam Howerton.

Men's cassimere suits, no fade, $3.75.

AGAIN WE COME TO THE FRONT! *

WITH WHAT EVERYONE WOULD SAY

The Best Selected, Lowest Price, Stock of Goods Ever Seen in our County.

WE ARE SHOWING
A GREAT LINE OF

Wool Dress Goods, Gingham, and Everything in the Dry Goods and Notion Line.

Remember
We Handle

No Shoddy
Boots or Shoes.

BUY YOUR GOODS
FROM

Bed Blankets and Comforts Cheaper than

Hood's

100

The Press.

ISSUED WEEKLY.

R. C. WALKER, Publisher.

ONE YEAR . . . ONE DOLLAR

CH-
NAS

The Courier-Journal is still pouring salt into the Democratic wounds.

As the election draws near and nearer, the Louisville Post gets louder and louder.

Professions of faith are all right in their place, and their place is at the beginning of a row of good works.

Gov. Clark, of Arkansas, is disposed to rise to the occasion and kick the prize-fighters out of his ball-club.

The usual gentle, stirring Watterson editorials of the Courier-Journal have given away to the lamentations of a Jeremiah, and the railings of a Pope.

Peace has her victories no less renowned than war, and the victory our countrymen are beginning to win over bad roads is one of the former's products.

Let us sincerely hope that the white-cappers have capped the climax and will forever and a day cease to handicap the peace and good fellow feelings of the country.

Messrs Crisp, Vest and Wanamaker have all recently returned from Europe, and each brings word that there is no hope of the powers of the old world lending any friendly encouragement to an international monetary conference, looking to the re-creation of silver.

The proverb about the leopard not changing its spots does not always hold good. The present generation can very well remember when the Courier-Journal, in discussing financial affairs said:

These facts demonstrate in a crystalline light that the single gold standard is universal instrument of enslavement.

Now that paper can not find a suitable epithet in the English language to apply to those who believed then and still believe the doctrine it then taught, and its feeble editor now calls the bimetalists "jabberwocks."

The old leopard then said:

We're not nothing in challenging an ironmaster to deny that oppression was and is the direct, legitimate result of monometalism. The Machiavelli who fathered John Sherman, himself admits it.

The old leopard now calls those who then and now accepted its statement as the truth, "fanatics," "demagogues," "immaculates" and "fools."

The old leopard said:

There is not to-day in all the world a writer on the side of the single gold standard felony who would hazard his reputation as an honest man by asserting that the universal price contracting of this era is not the work of the speculators.

NEW SALE.

Every body is enjoying the very agreeable change in the weather.

Some of us would like to see a good rain, so as to enable our farmers to tend their fall crop of wheat. There is not more than 20 per cent of a crop on this date.

The sickness seems to be on the stand still at present, the following last week. Rob Threlkeld, Geo. C. Tyler, Wm. Montgomery, Bill Turner, Tiha McWhiter and Tom Harpending.

Miss Dora Threlkeld who has been confined to her bed for the last three weeks, we are glad to learn is improving.

The C. P. Presbyterian passed off pleasantly at New Salem. There was some excellent preaching during the session.

The frost came like a thief in the night to many a farmer that had a tobacco crop and about 25 per cent of the 1895, crops were ruined.

Geo. C. Kirk has bought a part of ANORA.

C. L. Ballard is on the sick list. J. T. Nelson went to Marion Monday.

W. F. Arkridge, of Kelsey, was in these parts Tuesday.

It is a girl at Wash Moore's.

Mrs. W. C. Glenn, of Fredonia, was visiting friends here last week.

Rev. Moore began a protracted meeting at this place last Sunday.

The popular drummer, Jim Smith, was in town Saturday.

Misses Emma and Lucy Burget, of Marion, are visiting here and attending the meeting this week.

Uncle Wash Deboe lost a barn of tobacco by fire last week.

Mrs. Mary Hughes and Miss Alice Greer, of Fredonia, were visiting in these parts last Wednesday.

Geo. C. Kirk has bought a part of

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house, and in the afternoon Mr. Charles K. Wheeler, of Paducah, and Mr. Payson, Populist candidate for Attorney General, locked horns. Mr. Payson presented the Populist doctrine in a good speech, and Mr. Wheeler followed him and there was "music in the air." Mr. Wheeler is a logical clear and entertaining speaker and in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes he made a strong presentation of the Democratic cause. Mr. Wheeler is one of the coming men of the district. He has already given valuable services to his party.

Columbus McNeely and wife, of Caldwell, attended services here Sunday.

T. A. Yandell is the happiest man in these parts, it is a boy.

Henry Minier and Allie Adams, of Chapel Hill, attended services here Sunday.

Rev. Cook Kinsolving, of Salem attended services here Sunday.

Malcolm Buckner, Joe Carter, Lawrence Garner and Wilt Johnson, of Fredonia, attended services here Sunday.

Three speeches were made in Marion Monday. In the forenoon, Dr. Farmer a Populist, addressed a small crowd at the opera house

Save the Children

By Purifying Their Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes Pure Blood, Cures Sore Throat, Etc. "My experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla has been very effective. My little girl, five years old, had had for four years a bad skin disease. Her skin, though not so bad now, is still covered with sores, discharging yellow matter. She would not eat, and was very weak. I used to give her two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla daily, and her skin is now perfectly clear."

Two Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla caused the complexion to clear and the sores passed off, after which the skin became soft and smooth. As a family medicine we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal and I recommend it." W. L. Kinn, Pat. Date, Tex.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES

Hood's Pinto is the best family cathartic, gentle and effective. Try a bottle.

GREAT BATTLES are continually going on in the human system. Hood's Sarsaparilla drives out disease and RESTORES HEALTH.

Lumber for Sale, I will fill bills to orders for 600 per 100 feet for the next 15 days only. J. D. King.

ROUTE OF THE CHICAGO and NASHVILLE LIMITED

THE ONLY Pullman Vestibuled Train Service with News and Finsel Day Coaches, Sleepers and Dining Cars

FROM THE SOUTH

TERRE HAUTE, Indianapolis, CHICAGO, Milwaukee, St. Paul, AND ALL POINTS IN THE NORTH AND NORTHWEST.

In Poor Health means so much more than you imagine—serious and fatal diseases result from trifling ailments neglected. Don't play with Nature's greatest gift—health!

Brown's Iron Bitters

It Cures Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Troubles, Constipation, Bad Blood, Malaria, Nervous Complaints, Women's Complaints.

For only the genuine, has crossed red lines, and is guaranteed to be the best. On receipt of two or three we will send you a free sample. For views and facts, see Brown's Chemical Co., BALTIMORE, MD.

Mrs. Anna Gage, wife of Ex-Deputy U. S. Marshal, Columbus, Kan., says:

"I was delivered of TWINS in less than 90 minutes and with scarcely any pain after using only two bottles of our father, would then solemnize our hearts, and in the power

descend into our midst in this Most Gladly, solemn hour."

And Father, bless our young friend.

Our father, blessed by the blessing of the world as he wanders through the wilds of Panther Hollow."

O. Then who has closed the lion's mouth, and saved old Daniel's life,

Protest and bring that safely through, though perils may be rife?

As Brother Frank had reached this point,

"Amen," said Brother Miller,

And, in a tone of earnestness,

"Amen," cried Mr. Riley.

And poor Frank, in his grief,

With a friend and a friend there, O Paddington is to be a blessing in the end!

From all accounts, Chamberlain's

Cough Remedy is a godsend to the afflicted. There is no advertisement about this, we feel just right saying it.

—The Democrat, Carrollton, Ky.

Published by Gage.

CHAT'S PERIL.

A Story of Panther Hollow.

Written for the Press by Robert C. Hayes, Author of "Pent's Christmas," Etc.

CHAPTER XVI.

AT THE CHURCH.

The church—a handsome structure too—As was said before, was strewed with flowers and ever From the ceiling to the floor.

And at the shades of night drew nigh, And the hour of eight, A merry crowd had gathered there, Afraid of being late.

Among the first arrivals were— They never would be late, And were, of course, the jolliest—Haven, Johnny Dee, and Fate.

Well, Dave, I'm glad to see you here Tonight," said Johnny Dee; "You've brought your dog along with you,

"Yes," answered Dave, "I thought I'd go Around through Panther Hollow, but now I'll tell you something strange.

My hounds refused to follow," They'd go along awhile and then come back.

And while, as if in fear, I did not like to go alone, And so I came back here."

It must have been wolves," Fate spoke up.

"I've often heard it said that dogs would never track them; They seem to have dread."

"Dogg'd if I know, Fate," Dave replied; "They're never refused before; These hounds are brave as any dogs—Get them from Lucy Moore."

Their talk was interrupted here—Although to them no thanks—For in came Northen and his wife, And also Brother Franks.

Large crowds from all the country were gathering all the while, And so the church, tho' very large, Was filled from aisle to aisle.

So time passed on—awfully, of course, To Dave and John and Fate, And all the rest—and soon they heard The town clock striking eight.

It was then and there died away, When walking up the aisle, There came the bridgegroom's messenger Dressed up in splendid style.

A stillness reigned throughout the house.

"That's John Windfall," said Fate, The man spoke up: "The bridgegroom's here!"

Why should we longer wait?"

"I'm at his service," Frank replied; "Inform the bridgegroom, John; For everything is ready now—Tell him to come right on."

"Just wait a short time if you please," Then spoke up Brother Miley; "They'll be here in a minute; you know they are, Brother Riley?"

"No," answered Riley, "That's not here, I think he'll soon be there."

Suspect he rode Deck Driver's mule—He travels rather slow."

They waited there in much suspense—A half an hour, to be exact; And still no messenger arrived; No news was heard from that.

"There must be something wrong," said Fate.

"Or else he would not have come."

And scarcely had the words been said, When in came Fent and Carrie.

"Well, Fenton, what does all this mean?"

"Where's that?" asked Brother Miley.

"And did he ride Deck Driver's mule?"

Then added Mr. Riley.

"I left him as the sun went down, For Carrie—precious soul!"

He told me that he would meet us At that old swimming hole.

"We waited, but he never came; We heard the town clock toll

The hour of eight, then off we went, And left the swimming hole."

But Fenton was interrupted here.

In fact, both fire and steady, Tell Carrie, and I'll be on the mire,"

Said Brother Frank, "I'm ready."

Then John Windfall held his breath.

First entered Birdie—bonnie girl—And, walking in beside her, His face suffused with happiness, Was Milton Broadway Crier.

Then Carrie followed on behind—

Her face could not hide—And Jessie, young and beautiful, Was walking by his side.

They went up among the flow'rs,

Where Milton had led;

Then Brother Frank, with gentle mien, And solemn accents, said:

CHAPTER XVII.

BROTHER FRANK'S CEREMONY.

Wherefore, my friends, God hast ordained,

Since time's first revolution;

That we, his children, should employ This holy institution.

Now let us first, in gratitude, Lift up our hearts today, And all the blessings on us all.

So saying, we'll say, "Amen."

Our father, whether old or solemnize Our hearts, and in the power

descend into our midst in this Most Gladly, solemn hour."

And so it is my friends, to-day,

As it was King Davy's time,

We are to be responsible,

To some extent, for crime.

We see the Sabbath day profaned;

We see the trains go by,

On some excursion, north or south.

We never raise a cry,

As Brother Frank had reached this point,

"Amen," said Brother Miller,

And, in a tone of earnestness,

"Amen," cried Mr. Riley.

And poor Frank, in his grief,

With a friend and a friend there, O Paddington is to be a blessing in the end!

—The Democrat, Carrollton, Ky.

Published by Gage.

CHAPTER XVIII.

BROTHER MILEY'S SERMON.

Now this young couple would Thou tell us all as them own—

They were hard said to be,

They must live alone!

Keep them from man's destructive way,

And from temptation's snare,

And bring them to Thyself at last,

Is our most fervent prayer.

Now these us all, most holy One,

In all our works, and in life,

Life's journey's done, are in Heaven

Forevermore. Amen.

And now my friends, can any one—

Ken Fent or Fate or Carrie—

Now give us a reason why?

This couple should not marry?

Silence tells plainly that none objects;

And so you all must agree

To talk of them behind their backs—

Most honest hold your peace.

Now, young friends, does each of you

Before this alter, say—

Is getting sleepy—so is Fate—

Are our young men safe?

Our daughters, too, do not escape; Their dangers are too dire; They often leave in loving home To be a drunkard's wife.

And yet our girls are smitten sad!

He's got, perhaps, the cash His father left—won't have it long—

Or else it's me, us both!

And so she answers sweetly, "Yes,"

And what an awful fate?

A drunkard's wife! She says it's true.

But this, alas, too, is true!

That every girl finds heaven Wherever she's made a bribe!

And now my friends, I've had my say:

I see that Brother Fate

Is getting sleepy—so is Fate—

Are our young men safe?

TO BE CONTINUED.

TO THE PEOPLE.

You can sell your hickory timber to

Ohio River Spike and Rim Co., Paducah, Ky., write them for prices and and specifications.

PROTECTION from the pneumonia, diphtheria, fever epidemics is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It makes PURE BLOOD.

now indeed.

A geography published in 1819 contains the following startling description of that section of our country which Charles Dudley Warren's Remedy is all that claim it for, as on two occasions it stopped encircling pain and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house."

